

Jobs Daughters installs new Queen: De La Salle North Catholic student Katelin Durnal

Bethel #4 International Order of Jobs Daughters will hold their open installation of officers on January 10 at 6:30pm at Kenton Masonic Lodge, 8130 N. Denver Ave.

Katelin Durnal will be installed as Honored Queen. She is a sophomore at De La Salle North Catholic and the daughter of Tim and Jodi Durnal. Katelin is the granddaughter of long-time St. Johns residents, Joy Tarr and Harvey and Dolores Durnal. Katie is the third women in her family to serve as Honored Queen of Bethel #4 in 25 years.

Bethel #4 has been part of the North Portland community since it was instituted in September of 1923 at the former Doric Masonic Temple on N. John Ave. There are 19 Bethels in Oregon and Bethel #4 is one of the largest and most active in the state. The International Order of Job's Daughters is a premier organization for young women between the ages of 10 and 20 years old. It gives young women the opportunity to develop leadership and public speaking skills while also making life-long friendships.

Photo by Todd Fleming of Todd Fleming Studios in St. Johns